Art And Beauty In The

Winckelmann, a German Art Historian, claimed that beauty boiled down to three key factors. The beauty of form; The beauty of an idea; The beauty of expression, which, he says, is only possible in the presence of the first two factors. So then, beauty must be the highest form of expression and in turn, the highest aim of art.

What Is Beauty in Art? - Artist PopLab

Beauty alone is not art, but art can be made of, about or for beautiful things. Beauty can be found in a snowy mountain scene: art is the photograph of it shown to family, the oil interpretation of it hung in a gallery, or the music score recreating the scene in crotchets and quavers.

So too generally Plato conducts his inquiry into beauty at a distance from his discussion of art. (But the Republic and the Laws both contain exceptions to this generalization: Lear 2010, 361.) These three aspects of Platonic beauty work together and reflect beauty's unique place in Plato's metaphysics, something almost both visible and intelligible.
