Braids And Bows A Book

The main differences between the two books are: 1) "Hair" has more updos than "Braids and Bows," most of which are not in the latter book (I think I counted seven updos that are in "Hair," but not "Braids and Bows"); 2) for the dos that are the same, "Braids and Bows" has more styling options geared toward the younger set (for instance, not just the ponytail, braid, and braided bun, but also the double version of each: pigtails, pigtail braids, and Thumbelina braids).
