The original Hans Muth designed GSX-S Katanas were also dropped from Suzuki's global lineup by the mid-1980s, with sporting/racing duties better served by the lighter SACs (Suzuki Advanced Cooling System) air/oil-cooled GSX-Rs. The GSX 1100 lived on with significant styling changes for the 1984 model year with the addition of a 16" front end, including a full-faired 124 bhp monster of a musclebike, the GSX 1100EFE (US: GS1150EF).

EdTurner Motorcycles, a shop from France, has a solid reputation for delivering outside-the-box customs. The shop's founder Karl Renoult has a bit of a thing for wacky designs, so when a client with similar sensibilities commissioned a Suzuki build, it allowed Renoult to create something special out of a 1980 Suzuki GSX1100, which just happens to be this week's Bike of the Week.
