Microscripts Robert Walser

The Microscripts are Robert Walser's short stories written in teeny tiny pencil script on the back of business cards, matchbook covers, and scraps of paper. Walser is appreciated by some as a modernist, but I'm afraid I found these micro-narratives to be a little thin.

Microscripts by Robert Walser

Robert Walser (1878–1956) was born in Switzerland. He left school at fourteen and led a wandering and precarious existence working as a bank clerk, a butler in a castle, and an inventor's assistant while producing essays, stories, and novels.
